

south essex college
SKILLS | EDUCATION | CAREERS

The average
motor mechanic
salary in Essex is £26,000.

Motor Vehicle Career Destinations

Where will your course take you?

The industry is experiencing a skills shortage as a result of fewer young technicians entering the trade than those retiring, accompanied by the escalation of new vehicle technology.

LEVEL 2 QUALIFICATION REQUIRED

Apprentice
LGV driver
Apprenticeship
Auto electrician
Industry retail assistant
Motor vehicle fitter
Motor vehicle technician
Service adviser
Car valet
Windscreen fitter
Tyre or exhaust fitter
Armed services vehicle mechanic
Automotive warehouse operative
Car manufacturing worker
Heavy vehicle maintenance and repair
Mobile fuel drain technician
Sales adviser

LEVEL 3 DIPLOMA QUALIFICATION REQUIRED

Auto lock smith
Fork lift truck driver
LGV HGV mechanic
Motor mechanic
Motorcycle mechanic
Self employment
Vehicle damage assessor
Automotive engineer
College lecturer
Garage manager
Sales representative
MOT tester
Vehicle body repairer/finisher
Vehicle quality inspector
Motor vehicle breakdown engineer

LEVEL 4 - 6 + QUALIFICATION REQUIRED AND INDUSTRY-RELATED EXPERIENCE

Foundation degree
Access to HE programme
Automotive engineering
Agricultural machinery engineering
Motorsport technician
Motor vehicle management

ESSEX IS HOME TO A LARGE NUMBER OF MOTOR VEHICLE BUSINESSES INCLUDING GARAGES AND REPAIR SHOPS. IT IS ALSO HOME TO LARGE MANUFACTURES SUCH AS FORD, UNIVERSAL MOTORS AND GOSNAYS ENGINEERING